In the real world, nobody cares that you went to an Ivy League school

[A] ❶As a high school junior[①], everything in my life revolved around[②] getting into the right college. [43] ❷I diligently[③] attended my SAT, ACT, and Advanced Placement test preparation courses. ❸I juggled(尽力应付)cross-country and track[④] schedules, newspaper staff, and my church's youth group and drama team. ❹I didn't drink, party, or even do much dating. [43] ❺The right college, I thought, was one with prestige[⑤], one with a name. ❻It didn't have to be the Ivy League, but it needed to be a "top school."

[B][40] ❶Looking back now, nine years later, I can't remember exactly what it was about these universities that made them seem so much better. ❷Was it a curriculum that appeared more rigorous[⑥], perhaps? ❸Or an alumni[⑦] network that I hoped would open doors[⑧] down the line[⑨]? ❹Maybe. ❺"I do think there are advantages to schools with more recognition," notes Marybeth Gasman, a professor of higher education at the University of Pennsylvania. ❻"I don't necessarily think that's a reason to go to one."

[C]❶In reflection, my firm belief in the power of the brand was naive[⑩], not to mention a bit snobby[⑪]. ❷I quickly passed over state schools and southern schools, believing their curriculums to be automatically inferior to[⑫] northeastern or western counterparts. ❸Instead, I dreamed of living in New York City and my parents obliged[⑬] me with a visit to New York University's (NYU) campus. ❹During the tour, tuition[⑭] fees were discussed. ❺(NYU is consistently ranked one of the country's most expensive schools, with room and board[⑮] costs totaling upwards of[⑯] $64,000 a year.) [38] ❻Up until then, I hadn't truly realized just how expensive an education can be. ❼Over the next few months, I realized

在现实世界中,没人在意你是常春藤盟校毕业生

作为一名高三学生,当时我生活的一切都围绕着"考入理想的大学"进行。我勤勤恳恳地参加学术能力评估考试(SAT)、美国大学入学考试(ACT)以及大学预修课程(AP)考试的预备课。我在越野赛和径赛安排、报社事务以及我的教会青年剧团活动中疲于奔命。我不喝酒,不聚会,甚至不怎么约会。我当时觉得,"理想的大学"要有声望、要有名气,不用非得是常青藤名校,但要算是"顶尖学校"。

九年了,现在回想起来,我都记不太清这些大学到底哪一点让它们看上去如此出色。或许是看起来更缜密的课程编制?或者是我所期待的能打开未来之门的校友关系网?也许吧。"我不否认名气更大的学校是有一些优势,"宾夕法尼亚大学研究高等教育的教授玛丽贝思·加斯曼说道,"但我未必认为这是上这类学校的理由。"

not only could I not afford my dream school, I couldn't even afford the ones where I'd been accepted. ❽ City University of New York (CUNY), Rutgers University, and Indiana University were out of reach as were Mississippi State and the University of Alabama, where I would have to pay out-of-state fees. ❾ Further complicating my college search was a flourishing[17] track career—I wanted to keep running but my times[18] weren't quite fast enough to secure[19] a scholarship.

[D]❶ And so, at 11pm on the night of Georgia State University's (GSU) midnight deadline, I applied online. ❷ Rated No. 466 overall on Forbes' Lists Top Colleges, No. 183 in Research Universities, and No. 108 in the South, I can't say it was my top choice. ❸ Still, the track coach had offered me a walk-on[20] spot, and I actually found the urban Atlanta campus a decent[21] consolation[22] prize after New York City.

我的学校我也没钱上。纽约市立大学、罗格斯大学、印第安纳大学遥不可及，密西西比州立大学和阿拉巴马大学同样没戏，在这两所大学我还得交州外学费。让我的择校过程更复杂的是径赛领域蓬勃发展——我想继续跑步，但我的跑步速度不够快，拿不到奖学金。

于是，在佐治亚州立大学截止日期当夜的11点，我在网上提交了申请。这所大学在福布斯顶尖大学榜上总排名第466位、研究型大学排名第183位、南部大学排名第108位，算不上我的首选。不过，大学的田径教练已经答应给我一个临时队员的位置，而且我发现，其实这所位于亚特兰大市区的学校还挺像样，算得上去不成纽约市的安慰奖。

【定位词定位】43 题 test preparation courses 复现②句原词，various extracurricular activities 概括③句列举的 cross-country and track... newspaper... youth group and drama team 等课外活动。

【核心义匹配】段落核心文意“作者为上名校而参加各式备考课程和课外活动”与该试题核心义相符。

[B]段回顾作者对名校的执着。本段从“作者回忆(①—④句)”过渡到“专家说法(⑤⑥句)”，从 can't remember、Was... Or... Maybe 所体现出的“作者已记不清名校在当时的吸引力(实际暗示作者当时十分执着于名校)”转为 there are advantages... don't necessarily think... a reason 体现出的“专家认为不需要为了名校的优势而考取名校”，从而隐晦传递出作者当前对名校的看法：实非必须。全段核心信息为：(1)作者对名校何来吸引力的回忆；(2)教授 Gasman 看法“名校优势不足以成为择校理由”。

【定位词定位】40 题 cannot recall、appear a lot better 分别同义替换①句 can't remember、seem so much better。

【核心义匹配】①句“作者记不起这些学校为何出色(these universities 回指[A]段⑤⑥句 The right college... needed to be a “top school”)”契合试题核心信息。

[C]段回顾作者的择校过程。本段为“概述(①句)—细述(②—⑨句)”结构：首先以 naïve、snobby、quickly passed over... Instead... dreamed of... 概述作者最初的预期“天真地以为自己上得起名校，看不起非名校”；随后以 Up until then, I hadn't truly realized... Over the next few months, I realized... 描述真正择校时作者的心理落差：意识到自己不仅上不起名校，连愿意接收自己的学校也上不起；Further complicating 则引出使择校难上加难的因素：径赛领域竞争激烈、作者无法获得体育奖学金(以缓解学费压力)。全段核心信息为：(1)大学学费过于昂贵；(2)作者无法获得体育奖学金。

[E][44] ❶While it may have been practical, it wasn't prestigious. ❷But here's the thing: I loved my “lower-tier” (低层次的) university. ❸(I use the term “low-tier” cautiously, because GSU is a well-regarded① research institution that attracts high quality professors and faculty from all over the country.) ❹We are taught to believe that only by going to the best schools and getting the best grades can we escape the rat race② and build a better future. ❺But what if lower-tier colleges and universities were the ticket to escaping the rat race? ❻After all, where else can you leave school with a decent degree—but without a lifetime of debt?

这所学校或许切合实际，但它并不具有声望。不过事实却是：我热爱我的“低层次”大学。(“低层次”这个说法我用得很谨慎，因为佐治亚州立大学是一所备受尊重的研究型大学，吸引着全国各地的高水平教授和教员)。我们所受的教育让我们相信，只有上顶尖的学校、拿最高的分数，才能摆脱大城市的残酷竞争、创造更美好的未来。但如果“低层次”学院和大学就是摆脱残酷竞争的通行证呢？毕竟，还有哪所学校能让你毕业时拿到不错的学位——却又不必欠上一辈子的债呢？

[F]❶My school didn't come pre-packaged③ like the more popular options, so we were left to take care of ourselves, figuring out city life and trying to complete degree programs that no one was championing④ for us to succeed in. ❷What I'm saying is, I loved my university because it taught us all to be resourceful⑤ and we could make what we wanted out of it.

[G]❶I was lucky enough to have my tuition covered by a lottery-funded scholarship called HOPE (Helping Outstanding Pupils Educationally). ❷When I started college, the HOPE scholarship was funded by the state of Georgia and offered to graduating high school seniors with a GPA of 3.0 or higher. [37] ❸Living costs and books I paid for with money earned during high school, supplemented⑥ by a small college fund my deceased grandfather left for me and a modest⑦ savings account my parents created when I was born.

[H]❶So what about all that name recognition? ❷Sure, many of my colleagues and competitors have more glamorous⑧ alma maters (母校) than I do. ❸As a journalist, I have competed against NYU, Columbia, and Northeastern graduates for jobs. [41] ❹And yet, not a single interviewer has ever asked me about my educational background. ❺In fact, almost every interview I've ever had was due to a connection⑨—one that I've gained through pure determination, not a school brand.

[I][45] ❶According to The Boston Globe, students who earned their bachelor's in 2012 have an average monthly loan payment of $312, which is one-third more than those who graduated in 2004. ❷Ultimately, that's the thing universities don't want to admit. ❸Private universities are money-making institutions. ❹If you can afford to buy prestige, that's your choice. ❺For the rest of us, however, our hearty⑩ lower-tiered universities are just fine, thank you.

我的大学并没有像那些更受欢迎的大学那样预包装(得完美无缺),我们只得自己照顾自己、摸透城市生活、并设法完成无人帮助我们顺利完成的学位课程。我想说的是,我之所以热爱自己的大学,是因为它教会我们所有人随机应变,借此我们可以实现自己的追求。

那么知名度又如何呢?的确,我不少同事和竞争对手的母校都比我要光鲜。作为一名记者,找工作时我一度和纽约大学、哥伦比亚大学及东北大学的毕业生竞争。然而,没有任何一位面试官询问过我的教育背景。事实上,我所参加过的几乎每场面试都是由别人牵线搭桥的——这些人脉关系完全是我靠意志力获取的,与学校名声没有关系。

据《波士顿环球报》报道,2012年获得学士学位的毕业生平均每月需要偿还312美元贷款,比2004届毕业生多出三分之一。说到底,这就是大学不想承认的事实。私立大学是营利性机构。如果你买得起大学的名气,那这是你自己的选择。然而对于我们其他人来说,我们层次较低但暖心的大学就够好的,谢谢您了。

·速读巧解·

[E]至[M]段对比普通院校和名校,并表达对前者的肯定。

[E]至[I]段以作者母校佐治亚州立大学为例说明普通院校的特点。

[E]段首先概述普通院校的整体特点:让学生既获得不错的学位又不至于负债累累。①—③句借 But here's the thing 引出作者核心观点:热爱自己的母校;其中 practical、not prestigious、well-regarded 等词明确母校特点:切合自己要求(即不昂贵)、虽不具名气但也备受尊重。④—⑥句以 We are taught to believe... But what if... After all... 形成"通常看法——作者相反观点——解释说明"的逻辑链条,揭露普通院校才能让学生摆脱残酷竞争的事实。全段核心信息为:(1)作者热爱母校;(2)普通院校助学生摆脱残酷竞争。

【定位词定位】44 题 liked 与②句 loved 同义,not prestigious but less expensive 对比之意对应①句 While... practical... wasn't prestigious 让步之意。

【核心义匹配】①②句综合文意"作者母校学费较低、虽名气不大但作者超爱"可匹配 44 题核心义。

[F]段以作者在大学的习得指出普通院校的特点之一:让学生自己学会随机应变。本段以 What I'm saying is 实现从"过程"(作者及同学们自己照顾自己、适应城市生活、努力完成学位课程)到"结果"(学会随机应变、自力更生)的过渡叙述。全段核心信息为:作者在大学学会了随机应变。

【定位词定位】无。

[G]段以作者如何支付上大学费用指出普通院校的特点之二:费用不高。①②句说明作者大学学费来源:HOPE 奖学金资助。③句说明作者大学生活费和书本费来源:高中零工所得、祖父留下来的大学基金、父母专设的储蓄账户。money earned during high school、a small college fund、a modest savings account 说明在普通院校上学,所需生活费和书本费并不高。全段核心信息为:(1)作者大学学费的支付;(2)作者大学生活费和书本费的支付。

【定位词定位】37 题 money... made in high school、living expenses and books 分别同义替换③句 money made during high school、living costs and books。

【核心义匹配】③句"作者用高中挣的钱支付生活费和书本费"匹配 37 题核心义。

[H]段以作者面试经历指出普通院校的特点之三:知名度虽不如名校,但并不影响面试结果。本段整体以"问(①句)—答(②—⑤句)"结构说明普通院校得到的认可度;②—⑤句则以"让步(Sure)—转折(And yet、In fact)"逻辑指出"尽管竞争对手母校光鲜,但作者借助自身意志力获得与名校毕业生同等的面试机会,且在面试过程中并未因教育背景而受歧视"。全段核心信息为:作者面试印象。

【定位词定位】41 题 none of... job interviewers 对应④句 not a single interviewer。

【核心义匹配】④句"没有面试官过问作者的教育背景"与 41 题核心义相符。

[I]段以"上大学债务沉重"总结指出普通院校才是大多数学生的合理选择。本段从"一般(①②句 bachelor's、universities)"论及"特殊(③—⑤句 Private universities、prestige、lower-tiered universities)",实际上以"上大学债务越来越沉重、大学不愿承认事实"凸显"上名校的债务更甚、名校更是避而不谈",

从而明确作者的观点：买不起名校声望的学生应该老老实实选择普通院校。全段核心信息为：(1)学生债务越来越沉重；(2)大部分人更适合普通院校。

【定位词定位】45 题 heavier debt 对应①句 an... loan payment of...，which is one-third more than...；reluctant to admit 同义替换②句 don't want to admit。

【核心义匹配】①②句"大学不愿承认毕业生债务越来越多"匹配 45 题核心义。

[J] ❶ Wealthy universities talk up① the benefits their name will give graduates; namely, strong alumni networks, star faculty, and a résumé② boost. ❷ But you needn't attend an Ivy League school to reap those rewards. [36] ❸ Ludacris and the former CEO of Bank of America Ken Lewis are alumni of my college, as well as VICE's first female editor-in-chief, Ellis Jones. ❹ Successful people tend to be successful no matter where they go to school, and lower-tier schools can have alumni networks just as strong as their big name counterparts③. ❺ In fact, lower-tier school alumni networks are arguably stronger, because fellow alumni recognize that you didn't necessarily have an easy path to follow. ❻ They might be more willing to offer career help, because your less famous school denotes that, like them, you are also full of energy and perseverance④.

有钱的大学大肆鼓吹它们的名气给毕业生带来的好处；也就是强大的校友关系网、明星教员和简历加成。但是，你并不需要进入常春藤大学就能获得这些回报。路达克里斯(著名说唱歌手)和原美国银行 CEO 肯·刘易斯都是我的大学校友，还有《VICE》杂志首位女主编埃利斯·琼斯。成功人士不管去哪个学校，往往都会获得成功；低层次大学的校友关系网可以和名牌大学同样强大。事实上，可以说低层次大学的校友关系网更加强大，因为校友们都知道，你未必有轻松的路可走。他们也许更愿意提供职业方面的帮助，因为你的学校名气没有那么大，这就意味着你和他们一样精力充沛、不屈不挠。

[K] ❶ The Washington Post reported on a recent study by Princeton economists, in which college graduates who applied to the most selective⑤ schools in the 12th grade were compared to those who applied to slightly less selective schools. [39] ❷ They found that students with more potential earned more as adults, and the reverse held true⑥ as well, no matter where they went to school.

《华盛顿邮报》报道了普林斯顿大学经济学家最近的一项研究，研究对比了 12 年级时申请最顶尖学校的大学毕业生以及申请稍微逊色学校的大学毕业生。经济学家发现，更有潜力的学生成年后收入更高，反之亦然，无论他们上哪所大学。

[L] ❶ Likewise, star faculty are not always found where you'd expect. ❷ Big name schools are not necessarily the best places for professors; plus, many professors split teaching time between multiple colleges and/or universities. ❸ This means, for instance, a CUNY student could reasonably expect to receive the same quality of instruction from a prestigious professor as they would if they were enrolled in⑦ the same class at NYU.

同样，你也不一定能在你认为会有明星教员的地方遇到明星教员。名校未必就是教授最好的去处；更何况许多教授把教学时间分配给多所学院或/和大学。这意味着，比方说，纽约市立大学的学生完全有理由期待得到知名教授同等质量的教导，和自己如果能参加纽约大学同一门课程所获得的并无二致。

[M]❶It's possible that some hiring managers may be drawn to candidates with a particular educational résumé, but it's no guarantee. ❷According to a 2012 survey described in The Atlantic, college reputation ranked lowest in relative importance of attributes⑧ in evaluating graduates for hire, beaten out by top factors like internships, employment during college, college major, volunteer experience, and extracurriculars.
